

SOCO - Second Hand Smoke (SHS)

- Tobacco products are poisonous to pets. Cigarette smoke kills people and pets!
 - Protect your pets from cigarette smoke.
 - There is NO safe level of secondhand smoke for pets or people.
 - Cigarette smoke is harmful to pets because they don't just inhale, when they groom, they ingest the toxic residue on their fur.
- Discarded cigarette butts are dangerous too.
 - A cigarette butt chewed on and eaten by a puppy can kill it.
 - A discarded cigarette can also be dangerous for the environment, like start a fire.
 - Discarded cigarettes are harmful to wildlife if they ingest also.
- E-cigarettes are not safe.
 - Breathing nicotine aerosol is harmful to pets and people.
 - Toddlers and dogs have died from ingesting the liquid in e-cigarettes.
 - Discarded batteries of e-cigarettes are harmful to environment too.